

Wisconsin Religious and Independent Schools Accreditation

Limitations on the Use, Scope, and Distribution, of This Document

It is the official intent of the Board of Directors of the Wisconsin Religious and Independent Schools Accreditation (WRISA) that this report on the validation of the school's Self Study and compliance with the WCSA Standards Benchmarks be considered a privileged document, to be submitted by the chairperson of the Visiting Team directly to the Office of Catholic Schools who will in turn submit it directly to the administrator of the school. The distribution of the report and its availability for public consideration beyond that point rests solely in the hands of the administrator(s). Neither the chairperson nor the other members of the Visiting Team are authorized to release any of the information contained in this report without the express approval of the administration of the school.

The prime concern of the Visiting Team has been to determine the actual situation as it exists in the school and not to pass judgment on the professional personnel involved. Hence, neither the total report nor any of its subsections is to be considered an appraisal of any individual staff member, but rather an objective description of existing circumstances as they appear to trained and experienced school professionals.

Moreover, the use of this report as an official assessment of any staff person's professional competency would be in violation of the professional ethics under which a school Visiting is to be conducted. A fortiori such a use would be inherently invalid since at no time during the Visiting process has the Visiting Team been concerned with the appraisal of individual school personnel.

The members of the Visiting Team have voluntarily placed their professional judgment in balance in arriving at the conclusions reported in this document. They are willing to support the thoughtful evaluations they have made, provided the report is used appropriately. They are not to be held accountable for any injudicious or unauthorized use of this document.

The WRISA Board of Directors is the sole authority in determining the accreditation status of a school. Its decision may be different than the recommendation of the Visiting Team.
